

Langham Partnership February Prayer Guide

1-7 February: Preaching

1 February: Up to 40 participants are expected for a seminar this week in a South Asian country. Please pray that the training will lay a good foundation for the development of a preaching movement despite the security concerns.

2 February: Today and tomorrow, a preaching seminar takes place in Barcelona, with 40 participants expected. Give thanks for the life and ministry of the two facilitators Andrés Reid and Daniel Benítez. Pray for commitment and faithfulness among those who gather.

3 February: Pray for Mark Meynell that God would give him wisdom and strength in his role as Langham Preaching Director for Europe and the Caribbean.

4 February: Pray for the preaching event happening on 4-10 February in Nicaragua.

5 February: Please pray for a recent seminar in Switzerland on How to Teach and Preach Habakkuk. Ask God to bless the facilitators David Valdez and Olivier Charvin that their work would produce fruit.

6 February: Give thanks for the formation of a committee to guide the work in Suisse Romande (French-speaking Switzerland).

7 February: Please pray for the Preaching Leadership Team as they commence another year of leading this work: Jennifer Cuthbertson (Canada), Igor Améstegui (Bolivia), Esteban Améstegui (Bolivia), Femi Adeleye (Ghana), Ruth Slater (UK), Mark Meynell (UK), Dwi Maria Handayani (Indonesia) and Paul Windsor (New Zealand).

8-14 February: Scholars

8 February: Thank the Lord for the announcement of the new International Scholars Director Dr Lina Toth. She will commence her role on 1st June so please pray that she can complete her current commitments and bring experience and passion to the Langham Scholars team.

9 February: Pray for Langham Scholars Joseph Byamukama as he studies in Uganda and for Crystal* from East Asia studying through Sydney University and considers where to serve when she finishes her PhD this year.

10 February: Ask God to bless Scholar J* from the Big Country, studying at Wheaton College, that he will make progress in writing his dissertation.

11 February: Boye Nelson Kiamu, studying at Fuller Theological Seminary and living in Pasadena, and his wife Esther ask for prayer for their mission Liberia Renewal Ministry.

12 February: Ask the Lord to encourage Davi Manco from Brazil, studying at Biola University, to reach his goal of defending his PhD proposal in February/March.

13 February: Praise God for the testimony of Sara Améstegui Deik who is a Langham Scholar studying in the UK and was last month's special guest on Langham Live.

14 February: Pray for graduated Scholar Ronald* as he has a Writing Residency at another college in South East Asia; pray for him as he writes the first theological book in his heart language.

15-21 February: Literature

15 February: Pray for Langham's Regional Commissioning Editors Rico Villanueva, Liz Mburu, Yacouba Sanon and Roman Soloviy. Pray for their work in finding authors to meet the needs of their regions.

16 & 17 February: Langham Global Ambassador Chris Wright delivers two events in Belfast and Dublin today and tomorrow entitled God's Whole Mission for God's Whole Church. Ask God to bless this time of study and how these sessions will grow into a larger programme.

18 February: Praise God for the very practical new Spanish publication translated as Principals of Good Practices for Theological Libraries Serving Doctoral Programs.

19 February: Ask God to bless the daily readings of Reading the Gospel of John Through Palestinian Eyes through the Global Voices newsletter.

20 February: Continue to pray for Luke Lewis and the Literature team in Carlisle as they manage a global ministry in multiple languages, local contexts and various personalities.

21 February: May God bless a recent podcast with Langham author Elizabeth Mburu as she discussed how Africans interpret the Bible on The Stone Chapel Podcast with David Capes.

22-26 February: Langham UKI

22 & 23 February: Please pray for the Langham Live events this evening and tomorrow morning and for our special guest, Mano Emmanuel.

24 February: Praise the Lord for Jo, Linda and Kate as they process donations from Carlisle and to thank our ever-generous donors.

25 February: Please pray for Mark Armstrong, Supporter Development Officer for Ireland, as he travels throughout the country engaging with Langham supporters.

26 February: Ask God to bless the work of Langham UK & Ireland as they engage with churches this year. May there be a strong partnership and a combined vision of Langham's mission.

27-29 February: Langham International

27 February: Ask God to bless Langham US's trip to Egypt where supporters engage with local Langham facilitators and see the work 'on the ground'.

28 February: Pray for Chris Wright's weekly podcast On Mission with Chris Wright. May God bless Chris and his guests and may these sessions reach a wide global audience.

29 February: Continue to pray for the Out of the Margins podcast by the Young Langham Australian team that they may give and receive encouragement to a new online audience.

\ Names changed for security purposes*

Visit uk.langham.org/get-involved/pray to view our prayer points online. Thank you for your support.